

Website moderation policy

Your commentary, opinions and questions are welcome on our website page.

We will read all comments and messages.

By submitting content you are giving us permission to use and distribute this content in our print and online publications.

You are fully responsible for the comments you submit.

We will delete:

- spam, unauthorised advertising or soliciting material
- personal attacks or posts that reveal too much personal information
- abusive, offensive, libelous or defamatory comments
- excessively long or off-topic comments
- posts that appear to contain irrelevant links or appear to contain code

If you want to engage with us directly on an issue, complaint or enquiry that you have, you should call our Office on 0800 802 602 or send us an email to info@ombudsman.parliament.nz

For more details on our complaint handling processes you should refer to: <http://www.ombudsman.parliament.nz/make-a-complaint>